YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or any thing like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,

ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

Blood Purifiers

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES TAOMPSON.

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it.

Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,
Eigth, below Coates Street.

FOR PRESIDENT,

HORATIO SEYMOUR,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

FRANCIS P. BLAIR,

OF MISSOURI.

TAXES! TAXES!!

BY SPENCER W. CONE.

Taxes! taxes! nothing but taxes!
Taxed upon all that a man can eat;
Taxed on our flour, and taxed on our meat;
Taxed upon all that covers his back,
From his cotton shirt to his broadcloth black;
Taxed on whatever is pleasant to see,
To hear, or to smell, to feel, or to be,
Taxes! taxes! nothing but taxes!
Grinding our noses as sharp as axes.

And what are the taxes for?
Why, to feed all the Radical rascals fat,
And buy Horace Greeley a new white hat.

Taxes! taxes! Jacobin taxes!
Taxes on whisky, and taxes on beer;
But there's nothing in those kind of taxes queer,
For whisky and beer are the poor man's drinking,
And he swallows them down to keep from thinking!
How taxes! taxes! beggaring taxes!
Are grinding all noses as sharp as axes.

And what are the taxes for?
Why!—the Freedmen's Bureau to keep in repair.
So that Radical loafers can each have a chair,
And a chance for the pickings and stealings there!

Taxes! taxes! REPUBLICAN TAXES!
Taxed on the coffin, and taxed on the crib,
On the old man's shroud, and the baby's bib,
To pamper the bigot, and fatten the knave;
Taxed from the cradle plump into the grave.

And what are the taxes for?
Why, to buy all the rogues they can find, far and near,
And give S. M. Clark half a million a year.

Taxes! taxes! REPUBLICAN TAXES!
For rich men to shirk, and for poor men to pay,
From the pittance they earn by the work of the day,
By the strain of the muscle, the sweat of the brow,
By the spade and the trowel, the axe and the plough.

And what are the taxes for?
Why, the old Constitution to knock all to smash,
And fill every place-holder's pockets with cash.

Taxes! taxes! BONDHOLDERS' TAXES!
That's what the taxes are for!
Hurrah! for the taxes, the jolly old taxes!
Come, men, get your noses all ground sharp as axes—
Cry Sumner and Stevens, Ben. Butler and Wade,
And all our tax Bosses that taxes have made;
You "mud-sills" to Yankee philanthrophy sold,
Be quiet—obey!—and your saucy tongues hold
The Bondholder's Bonds, and his Interest in Gold,
We don't tax, and won't tax, for fools, don't you see;
An Aristocrat bondholder's party are we;
And as soon as we've finished the Southern concern
We'll settle you Northern white trash in turn;
So pay up your taxes; no growling; be hearty,
And vote for our upper-crust BONDHOLDERS' PARTY.

For that's what the taxes are for?
The nose-grinding Taxes!
The Republican Taxes!!
The Radical Taxes!!!
The Jacobin Taxes!!!!
The Bondholder's Taxes!!!!!
That's just what these taxes are for?

The age we live in—Bond-age.

Grant's life is not insured. He has "no policy."

Seymour is too Tam-many for the Republicans.

Notwithstanding his lonely Western tour, Grant is said to be in good spirits.

Grant's home is in Illinois. That accounts for his being such a great Sucker.

The reason of Grant's taciturnity is because he is generally "too full for utterance."

It is said that "Silence is gold," which is the reason why the bondholders support Grant.

Grant is taking a tour toward Salt Lake. Next Fall he will take trip up Salt River.

There is a great deal of action in the Republican camp, but, unfortunately for them, it is prefixed with re.

Next Fall the Republican candidate for the Presidency will be an Emi-GRANT—to Salt River.

The total aggregate of exports for the last fiscal year, in specie value, amount to $352,616,006, an increase over the previous year of $18,141,890. The net imports for 1868 reached $348,903,819, a decrease since the previous year of $41,215,777. This includes gold receipts and shipments as well as merchandise.

The Southern negroes are being taught that Seymour always dines off roast black baby, mulatto sauce.

THE PRESIDENCY.

Mr. Seymour's Letter Accepting the Nomination.

The following is Horatio Seymour's acceptance of the Democratic nomination for the presidency:

UTICA, August 4, 1868.—Gentlemen: When, in the city of New York, on the 11th ultimo, in the presence of a vast multitude, on behalf of the national Democratic convention, you tendered to me its unanimous nomination as their candidate for the office of President of the United States, I stated I had no words adequate to express my gratitude for the good will and kindness which that body has shown to me. Its nomination was unexpected. It was my ambition to take an active dart, from which I am now excluded, in the great struggle going on for the restoration of good government, of peace and prosperity to our coutry. But I have been caught by the whelming tide which is bearing us on to a great political change, and I find myself unable to resist its pressure. You have also given me a copy of the resolutions put forth by the convention, showing its position upon all the great questions which now agitate the country. As the presiding officer of that convention, I am familiar with their scope and import; as one of its members I am a party to their terms. They are in accord with my views, and I stand upon them in the contest upon which we are now entering, and I shall strive to carry them out in future, wherever I may be placed, in political or private life.

I then stated that I would send you these words of acceptance in a letter, as is the customary form. I see no reason, upon reflection, to change or qualify the terms of my approval of the resolutions of the convention.

I have delayed the mere formal act of communicating to you in writing what I thus publicly said, for the purpose of seeing what light the action of Congress would throw upon the interests of the country. Its acts since the adjournment of the convention show an alarm lest a change of political power will give to the people what they ought to have, a clear statement of what has been done with the money drawn from them during the past eight years. Thoughtful men feel that there have been wrongs in the financial management which have been kept from the public knowledge. The congressional party has not only allied itself with military power, which is to be brought to bear directly upon the election in many States, but it also holds itself in perpetual session, with the avowed purpose of making such laws as it shall see fit, in view of the elections which will take place within a few weeks. It did not therefore adjourn, but took a recess, to meet again if its partisan interests shall demand its reassembling. Never before in the history of our country has Congress thus taken a menacing attitude towards its electors. Under its influence, some of the States organized by its agents are proposing to deprive the people of the right to vote for presidential electors, and the first bold steps are taken to destroy the rights of suffrage. It is not strange, therefore, that thoughtful men see in such action the proof that there is, with those who shape the policy of the Republican party, a motive stronger and deeper than the mere wish to hold political power; that there is a dread of some exposure which drives them on to acts so desperate and so impolitic.

Many of the ablest leaders and journals of the Republican party have openly deplored the violence of congressional action, and its tendency to keep up discord in our country. The great interests of our country demand peace, order, and a return to those industrial pursuits without which we cannot maintain the faith of our government. The minds of business men are perplexed by uncertainties. The hours of toil of our laborers are lengthened by the costs of living made by the direct and indirect exactions of government. Our people are harassed by the heavy and frequent demands of the tax-gatherer. Without distinction of party, there is a strong feeling in favor of that line of action which shall restore order and confidence, and shall lift off the burdens which now hinder and vex the industry of the country. Yet at this moment those in power have thrown into the Senate chamber and congressional hall new elements of discord and violence. Men have been admitted as representatives of some of the southern States, with the declaration upon their lips that they cannot live in the States they claim to represent, without military protection. These men are to make laws for the North as well as the South. These men, who, a few days since, were seeking as suppliants that Congress would give them power within their respective States, are to-day the masters and controllers of the actions of those bodies. Entering them with minds filled with passions, their first demands have been that Congress shall look upon the States from which they come as in conditions of civil war; that the majority of their populations, embracing their intelligence, shall be treated as public enemies; that military forces shall be kept up at the cost of the people of the North, and that there shall be no peace and order at the South save that which is made by arbitrary power. Every intelligent man knows that these men owe their seats in Congress to the disorder in the South; every man knows that they not only owe their present positions to disorder, but that every motive springing from the love of power, of gain, of a desire for vengeance, prompts them to keep the South in anarchy. While that exists, they are independent of the wills or wishes of their fellow-citizens. While confusion reigns, they are the dispensers of the profits and the honors which grow out of a government of mere force. These men are now placed in positions where they can not only urge their views of policy, but where they can enforce them. When others shall be admitted in this manner from the remaining southern States, although they will have in truth no constituents, they will have more power in the Senate than a majority of the people of this Union living in nine of the great States. In vain the wisest members of the Republican party protested against the policy that led to this result. While the chiefs of the late rebellion have submitted to the results of the war, and are now quietly engaged in useful pursuits for the support of themselves and their families, and are trying by the force of their example to lead back the people of the South to the order and industry, not only essential to their well-being, but to the greatness and prosperity of our common country, we see that those who, without ability or influence, have been thrown by the agitations of civil convulsion into positions of honor and profit, are striving to keep alive the passions to which they owe their elevation. And they clamorously insist that they are the only friends of our Union—a Union that can only have a sure foundation in fraternal regard and a common desire to promote the peace, the order and the happiness of all sections of our land.

Events in Congress since the adjournment of the convention have vastly increased the importance of a political victory by those who are seeking to bring back economy, simplicity and justice in the administration of our national affairs. Many Republicans have heretofore clung to their party who have regretted the extremes of violence to which it has run. They have cherished a faith that while the action of their political friends has been mistaken, their motives have been good. They must now see that the Republican party is in that conditon that it cannot carry out a wise and peaceful policy, whatever its motives may be. It is a misfortune, not only to a country, but to a governing party itself, when its action is unchecked by any form of opposition. It has been the misfortune of the Republican party that the events of the past few years have given it so much power that it has been able to shackle the executive, to trammel the Judiciary, and to carry out the views of the most unwise and violent of its members. When this state of things exists in any party, it has ever been found that the judgments of its ablest leaders do not control. There is hardly and able man who has helped to build up the Republican organization who has not within the past three years warned it against its excessses, who has not been borne down and forced to give up his convictions of what the interests of the country called for, or, if too patriotic to do this, who has not been driven from its ranks. If this has been the case heretofore, what will be its action now with this new infusion of men who, without a decent respect for the views of those who had just given them their positions, begin there legislative career with calls for arms, with demands that their States shall be regarded as in a condition of civil war, and with a declaration that they are ready and anxious to degrade the President of the United States whenever they can persuade or force Congress to bring forward new articles of impeachment?

The Republican party, as well as we, are interested on putting some check upon this violence. It must be clear to every thinking man that a division of political power tends to check the violence of party action and to assure the the peace and good order of society. The election of a Democratic executive and a majority of Democratic members to the House of Representatives would not give to that party organization the the power to make sudden or violent changes, but it would serve to check those extreme measures which have been deplored by the best men of both political organizations. The result would most certainly lead to that peaceful restoration of the Union and re-establishment of franternal relationship which the country desires. I am sure that the best men of the Republican party deplore as deeply as I do the spirit of violence shown by those recently admitted to seats in Congress from the South. The condition of civil war which they contemplate must be abhorrent to every right-thinking man.

I have no mere personal wishes which mislead my judgment in regard to the pending election. No man who has weighed and measured the duties of the office of President of the United S ates can fail to be impressed with the cares and toils of him who is to meet its demands. It is not merely to float with popular currents without a policy or a purpose. On the contrary, while our Constitution gives just weight to the public will, its distinguishing feature is that it seeks to protect the rights of minorities. Its greatest glory is that it puts restraints upon power. It gives force and form to those maxims and principles of civil liberty for which the martyrs of freedom have struggled through ages. It declares the right of the people "to be secure in their persons, houses and papers against unreasonable searches and seizures. That Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or the free exercise thereof, or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press, or the right of the people to petition for redress of grievances. It secures the right of a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury."

No man can rightfully enter upon the duties of the presidential office unless he is not only willing to carry out the wishes of the people expressed in a constitutional way, but is also prepared to stand up for the rights of minorities. He must be ready to uphold the free exercise of religion. He must denounce measures which would wrong personal or home rights, or the religious conscience of the humblest citizen of the land. He must maintain, without distinction of creed or nationality, all the privileges of American citizenship.

The experience of every public man who has been faithful to his trust teaches him that no one can do the duties of the office of President unless he is ready not only to undergo the falsehoods and abuse of the bad, but to suffer from the censure of the good who are misled by predjudices and misrepresentations. There are no attractions in such positions, which deceive my judgment, when I say that a great change is going on in the public mind. The mass of the Republican party are more thoughttful, temperate and just than they were during the excitement which attended the progress and close of the civil war. As the energy of the Democratic party springs from their devotion to their cause and not to their candidates, I may with propriety speak of the fact that never in the political history of our country has the action of any like body been hailed with such universal and wide spread enthusiasm as that which has been shown in relation to the position of the national Democratic convention. With this the candidates had nothing to do. Had any others of those named been selected, this spirit would have been perhaps more marked. The zeal and energy of the conservative masses spring from a desire to make a change of political policy, and from the confidence that they can carry out their purpose.

In this faith they are strengthened by the co-operation of the great body of those who served in the Union army and navy during the war. Having given nearly sixteen thousand commissions to the officers of the army, I know their views and wishes. They demand the Union for which they fought. The largest meeting of these gallant soldiers which ever assembled was held in New York, and endorsed the action of the national convention. In words instinct with meaning, they called upon the government to stop in its policy of hate, discord, and disunion, and in terms of ferved eloquence they demanded the restoration of the rights and liberties of the American people.

When there is such accord between those who proved themselves brave and self-sacrificing in the war, and those who are thoughtful and patriotic in council, I cannot doubt we shall gain a political triumph which will restore our Union, bring back peace and prosperity to our land, and will give us once more the blessings of a wise, economical and honest government.

I am, gentlemen, truly yours, &c.,

HORATIO SEYMOUR.

LETTER OF GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR ACCEPTING THE NOMINATION FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, July 21, 1868.

The following is a copy of General Blair's letter of acceptance of the Democratic nomination for Vice President, which has just been received here:

General George W. Morgan, Chairman of the Committee of the National Democratic Convention.

GENERAL: I take the earliest opportunity of replying to your letter notifying me of my nomination for Vice President of the United States by the National Democratic Convention recently held in the city of New York.

I accept without hesitation the nomination tendered in a manner so gratifying, and give you and the committee my thanks for the very kind and complimentary language in which you have conveyed to me the decision of the Convention.

I have carefully read the resolutions adopted by the Convention, and most cordially concur in every principle and sentiment they announce.

My opinion upon all the questions which discriminate the great contending parties have been fully expressed on all suitable occasions, and I do not deem it necessary at this time to reiterate them.

The issues upon which the contest turns are clear and cannot be obscured or distorted by the sophistries of our adversaries. They all resolved themselves into the old and ever recurring struggle of a few men to absorb the political power of the nation. This effort under every conceivable name and disguise, has always characterized the opponents of the Democratic party, but at no time has the attempt assumed a shape so open and daring as in this contest. The adversaries of free and constitutional government, in defiance of the express language of the constitution, have erected a military despotism in ten States of the Union; have taken from the President the power vested in him by the supreme law, and have deprived the Supreme Court of her jurisdiction; the right of trial by jury and the great writ of right, the habeas corpus—shields of safety for every citizen, and which have descended to us from the earliest traditions of our ancestors, and which our Revolutionary fathers sought to secure to their posterity forever in the fundamental characters of our liberties, have been ruthlessly trampled under foot by the fragment of a Congress. Whole States and communities of people of our race have been attained, convicted, condemned and deprived of their rights as citizens without presentment of trial or witnesses, but by Congressional enactments of ex post facto laws and defiance of the constitutional prohibition denying even to a full and loyal Congress the authority to pass any bill of attainder or ex post facto law. The same usurping authority has substituted as electors in place of the man of our own race, thus illegally attained and disfranchised, a host of ignorant negroes who are supported in idleness with the public money, and combined together to strip the white race of their birthright through the management of Freedman's Bureaus and emissaries of conspirators in other States, and to complete the oppression, the military power of the nation has been placed at their disposal in order to make this barbarism supreme. The military leader under whose prestige this usurping Congress has taken refuge since the condemnation of their schemes by the free people of the North in the elections of the last year, and whom they have selected as their candidate to shield themselves of the result of their own wickedness and crime, has announced his acceptance of the nomination, and his willingness to maintain their usurpations over eight millions of whites at the South fixed to the earth with his bayonets. He exclaims:—"Let us have peace." "Peace reigns in War-saw" was the announcement which heralded the doom of the liberties of a nation. "The empire is peace," exclaimed Bonaparte when freedom and its defenders expired under the sharp edge of the sword. The peace to which Grant invites us is the peace of despotism and death. Those who seek to restore the constitution by executing the will of the people, condemning the Reconstruction acts already pronounced in elections of last year, and which will I am convinced, be still more emphatically expressed by the election of the Democratic candidate as President of the United States, are denounced as revolutionists by the partisans of this vindictive Congress. Negro suffrage (which the popular vote of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Connecticut and other States has expressed against the letter of the constitution) must stand because their Senators and Representatives have willed it. If the people shall again condemn these atrocious measures by the election of a Democratic candidate for President, they must not be disturbed. Although decided to be unconstitutional by the Supreme Court, and although the President is sworn to maintain and support the constitution, the will of a fraction of a Congress, reinforced with its partisan emissaries sent to the South and supported there by the soldiery, must stand against the will of the people and the solemn oath of the President to maintain and support the Constitution. It is revolutionary to execute the judgment of the Supreme Court; it is revolutionary in the President to keep inviolate his oath to sustain the Constitution. This false construction of the vital principle of government is the last resort of those who have their arbitrary reconstruction sway and supersede our time-honored institutions. The nation will say the Constitution must be restored and the will of the people again prevail. The appeal to the peaceful ballot to attain this is not war, is not revolution. They make war and revolution who attempt to arrest this quiet mode of putting aside military despotism and the usurpations of a fragment of a Congress, asserting absolute power over that benign system of regulated liberty left us by our fathers. This must be allowed to take its course. This is the only road to peace. It will come with the election of the Democratic candidate, and not with the election of the mailed warrior whose bayonets are now in the throats of eight millions of people in the South to compel them to support him as a candidate for the Presidency, and to submit to the domination of an alien race of semi-barbarous men. No perversion of truth or audacity of misrepresentation can exceed that which hails this candidate in arms as an angel of peace.

I am, very respectfully, your most obedient servant,

FRANK P. BLAIR.

BONDHOLDERS.

What an appropriate name!

They hold, with a tightning grasp, the bonds which bind the laboring man to a life of slavery—of unremitting drudgery for the payment of the interest in gold on securities that were bought in greenbacks.

Bondholders!

They are true to their name, and to the principles of their illustrious predecessor, SHYLOCK, in demanding their pound of flesh, in the cutting out of which the life-blood of the laboring man is drawn from his viens.

Bondholders!

Like their great prototype of the Bible, PHAROAH, they know no feeling of mercy, and although they see the sunshine shut out from the poor man's house, the army of tax-gathering locusts devouring the substance of the land, they relax not their grasp upon the bonds with which they have bound the people. They refuse to recognize in the voice of the people the voice of GOD.

Bondholders!

The bonds with which they have enslaved the energy and industry of the nation wore lightly at first, then they galled, and now they cut deep in the flesh, but the bondholders heed not the groans of those they have enslaved—the jingling music of the gold, as they count over their interest, drowns all unpleasant sounds which might disturb their peace.

Bondholders!

The monied aristocracy, whose dainty hands cannot be polluted with the greasy greenbacks handled by workingmen. Bright jingling gold is their currency.

Bondholders!

The pure patriots who refuse to accept the currency of their country in payment of its obligations—who repudiate the promises to pay of the Government.

Bondholders!

A precious set of harpies who, under the guise of patriotism, took advantage of the necessities of their country to swindle it and enslave their fellow-countrymen.

Bondholders!

The people demand that the name shall no longer be the synonym of a privileged class—a monied nobility whom the people must support in luxury and idleness.

THE BLACK TEST.

"I do solemnly swear that I accept the civil and political equality of all men, and agree not to attempt to deprive any person or persons, on account of race, color, or previous condition, of any political or civil right, privilege, or immunity enjoyed by any other class of men. So help me God."—Southern Radical Carpet Bag Constitutions.

No northern man, soldier or civilian, can become a citizen of any the "reconstructed states," without taking this oath.

Is the Union restored? Not according to the Grant Reconstruction platform.

UNEQUAL TAXATION.

The Bedford Inquirer, being opposed to Equal Taxation, it follows, is in favor of Unequal Taxation. What do its readers and political supporters say to such a position?

"The Negro should have the right to vote in the Northern States and I will come into this Congressional district and help elect Mr. Cessna to Congress on this issue."—Tom Marshall at the Radical Meeting, in presence of Cessna, who dared not repudiate the sentiment.

REMEMBER.

It should be remembered by those who have been deprived of their suffrages by the infamous Deserter Law, that that odious enactment has been wiped out of the statute-book by the decision of the Supreme Court. Let all such persons be assessed and prepare to vote.

If greenbecks are good enough for the soldier, the laborer, the farmer, the miller, the butcher and the shop-keeper, are they not good enough for the bond-holder?

THE MARCH TO DESPOTISM.

No election in Virginia,
No election in Mississippi,
No election in Texas,
No election in Florida.

"To send a parcel of Northern men here as representatives, elected, as would be understood (and perhaps really so) at the point of the bayonet, would be disgraceful and outrageous, and were I member of Congres here, I would vote against admitting any such man to a seat.—A. Lincoln, Nov. 21. 1862, General Shepley at New Orleans.

"The Negro should have the right to vote in the Northern States and I will come into this Congressional district and help elect Mr. Cessna to Congress on this issue."—Tom Marshall at the Radical Meeting, in presence of Cessna, who dared not repudiate the sentiment.

Who boasted that they would not vote a man nor a dollar to put down the Rebellion? The Democratic Party.—New York Tribune.

"You lie, you villain, you lie!" Had it not been for Democratic soldiers and Democratic contributions of money, the rebellion could not have been subdued, and you know it, you white-faced hypocrite. But who declared that if the Cotton States choose to secede, it would be criminal to coerce them back into the Union? Horace Greely, who dares not deny it.

The White Boys in Blue are all aglow with enthusiasm. They declare that they will have the Union for which they fought, and nothing less. This they say they can secure only by the election of Seymour and Blair, and they are going to elect him. "Let us have peace."

ARE YOU AT WORK?

Democrats of the several election districts of Bedford county! The time for work is at hand. If you are active, untiring, a great victory awaits you. From all parts of the county comes the most cheering news. Connecticut, Oregon, Kentucky and Montana, have spoken in tones of thunder in favor of the Democracy. Think of 90,000 Democratic majority in old Kentucky! Shall we not strive to imitate this glorious example? Yes, let every one of us put our shoulder to the wheel! Let each Democrat resolve to make one convert to the cause, and if but one in a dozen succeeds, Bedford county will give 1,000 Democratic majority. Come, let all go to work in earnest, and let us see what we can do in old Bedford when we try.

Is the Union restored? Not according to the Grant Reconstruction platform.

THE Inquirer says that Tom. Marshall, "though possessing a genial life," (he must possess a charmed life to stand such plastering with bovine excrement) "had been stigmatized in coarsest language, in a public journal." This means that we called him "a clown." Well, he is not only a clown, but a brutal blackguard. Besides, he threw the first stone. He said in his first speech in Bedford, that the Democrats had sent to Harrisburg for the editor of this paper for the purpose of having him "fix up" some young Democrats who were dissatisfied, and that when he could not do it otherwise, he made them drunk! Now, this was not only an atrocious falsehood, but it was uttered in regard to one who was, at the time, an utter stranger to Mr. Marshall. A man who could do so ungentlemanly a thing, must not complain when he gets rough usage. But nothing else could be expected of a fellow who prefers the society of a negro bootblack to that of decent white men.

"The Negro should have the right to vote in the Northern States and I will come into this Congressional district and help elect Mr. Cessna to Congress on this issue."—Tom Marshall at the Radical Meeting, in presence of Cessna, who dared not repudiate the sentiment.

A RADICAL REBELLION THREATENED.

Johnson, of Missouri, Declares that Seymour's Inauguration Shall Be Prevented By Force!

The Radicals are preparing to rebel in case any of the Southern States are needed to elect the Democratic candidate. Johnson, their candidate for Attorney General of Missouri, made a speech at Saline, in that State, a few days since, in which he said, repeating the sentiment several times:

"There could and should be but one result to the election this fall—that General Grant, backed by the army and supported by the whole Radical party, would prevent, with the bayonet, the inauguration of a Democratic administration at Washington, and that the Radical State Government at Jefferson would resist and put down in the same way any attempt to inaugurate the Democratic party into power in this State."

Such is the revolutionary and bloody purpose of these desperate Radicals. The only way to settle them, is, for the people of the Northern States to overwhelm them at the polls. Conservative Republicans should understand that if they would prevent the threatened Radical Revolution, the vote for Seymour and Blair must be made decisive in the Northern States. Moderate thinking men of Pennsylvania! Is not your duty clear in the premises?

Is the Union restored? Not according to the Grant Reconstruction platform.

MORE LIES.

The Inquirer of last week is brimfull of such lies as the more respectable Republican journals think it a disgrace to print. We copy:

The "Lost Cause" to be Regained.

"What the Confederacy fought for will be won by the election of Seymour and Blair—[Gov. Z. B. Vance.

Secession not Dead.

"I do not care for the platform. It tells a lie in its first resolution. It says 'secession is dead.' Secession is not dead. It is more alive than ever."—[Gov. Wise.

The Confederacy Must Triumph.

The cause for which Stonewall Jackson fell cannot be in vain; but in some form, will yet triumph." [Wade Hampton.

Seymour Preferred Confederate Constitution.

Horatio Seymour, after the adoption of the Confederate Constitution, said to Judge Charles H. Ruggles: "It is better than ours, (the Federal.) Then why not obviate all difficulty, by simply adopting that (Confederate) Constitution?"

These are specimen bricks. There is not one word of truth in the statement that either Vance, Wise or Hampton ever made use of the language attributed to them. They have all publicly denied that they have said anything of the kind. As for Seymour preferring the "Confederate Constitution," he certainly had a queer way of showing his preference for it, when he issued 15,000 commissions to Union officers, organized over 300,000 troops, and sent 17,000 emergency men to Gettysburg, to help put down that Constitution. How easy a thing it is to squelch a liar!

NOW, YOU CAN SEE!

The mouth-piece of the Radicals, Tom Marshall, at their meeting on Saturday night of last week, declared that his party is in favor of compelling the people of eleven States to have Negro Suffrage, and that it must also be established in the Northern States. Now, Republicans, you can see what your leaders are driving at! They have riveted their odious policy upon the Southern States, and now, with Grant as an instrument to deceive you, they want to fasten it upon you! They are getting bolder. They imagine the people will tolerate any thing they choose to do. They think Grant's military cloak will cover their infamous purposes from your sight. Even now, there is snugly filed away in one of the committee rooms of Congress, Sumner's bill to legislate Negro Suffrage into all the States. Elect men like John Cessna, or, in fact, any Radical, to Congress, and they will pass this bill at once. Should Grant be elected and veto it, they will pass it over his veto. If they carry the election, they will say the people endorsed Negro Suffrage at the polls and demand such a law from Congress. This is plainly foreshadowed in the speech of Tom. Marshall. The Radical party is openly committed to this purpose. Grant stands upon their platform and accepts their doctrines. He is tarred with the same stick as Sumner, Kelley, Wade and the rest. Let every Republican who is opposed to Universal Negro Suffrage act out his principles, and either not vote at all, or vote for Seymour and Blair.

"The Republican party has been laboring since the close of the war to establish firm and stable civil governments in the Southern States and restore them, to peace and prosperity."—Inquirer.

A deliberate, naked and shameless falsehood! In 1865, there were "firm and stable governments" erected in those States, upon the plan of A. Lincoln, carried into effect by Andrew Johnson. [See testimony of U. S. Grant before the Military Committee of Congress.] The people of the South elected representatives to Congress, the same year, and asked to be recognized as in the Union. The "Republican" party, the infamous, devilish Radicals into whose control that party had fallen, refused admission to those representatives, turned them away from the doors of Congress, passed the Reconstruction Acts, divided the South into military districts, established an armed despotism over the Southern people, and forced Negro Suffrage and Negro Supremacy upon them at the point of the bayonet. They banded the blacks together in sworn leagues, and, as Senator Doolittle aptly and truthfully expressed it, "organized hell in the South." They "labor to establish firm and stable governments in the South!" They "labor to restore to those States peace and prosperity!" So Lucifer "labored to establish a firm and stable government" in Heaven! So the wolf "labors to restore peace and prosperity" to the sheep-fold! Out upon the mendacious knave who thinks to palm off such a bald and tawdry lie upon his readers! Why, if the "Republican" party "labored" so hard to establish firm and stable governments in the Southern States and restore them to peace and prosperity, how comes it that their labor has been unsuccessful? Nobody hindered them. Nobody could hinder them. They rode roughshod over all opposition to their policy. They handcuffed the President with their two-thirds vote in Congress, they gagged the Supreme Court, and they had their bayonets constantly at the throats of the Southern people. Now, whose fault was it that they have not succeeded? Nobody's but their own. Their policy is unequal, unjust, corrupt, wicked and diabolical and cannot be carried out. They have failed because they are wrong. Let them not complain when they bring ruin upon their own heads.

"My nigger that blacks my boots is as good as any Democrat in the land." Tom Marshall, John Cessna's right bower.

THE gushing love for the soldier, that fills the soul of John Cessna, prompted him to go to Chambersburg on the day before the meeting of the Franklin county convention, to lay the ropes that would slaughter the gallant Col. Weistling, in the house of his friends.—What arguments Cessna used to convince the delegates that he was more entitled to the conferees than the soldier who was clearly the choice of that county, has not yet come to light. But he succeeded. John's motto is,—and in fact it is the motto of the Radicals everywhere—never sacrifice your own interests to enhance those of the soldier. Thus we have another instance of the great love which that party professes to have for the soldiers. One after another they are crushed as they lay themselves down before this Juggernaut of Radicalism. First, Capt. Stuckey, now Col. Weistling, both had to be slaughtered to appease this new god who has set himself up to be worshipped by the Radical party in this district. Bring along the next victim! Will it be Lieut. Longenecker?

DEATH OF STEVENS.

Thaddeus Stevens died at his residence in Washington, on Tesuday night, the 10th inst., at 12 o'clock, aged 76 years. His remains were taken to Lancaster, where the funeral took place on Monday afternoon of this week.—He was the acknowledged leader of the Radicals, and in his death that party has sustained an irreparable loss.

"The Negroes should have the right to vote in the Northern States and I will come into this Congressional district and help elect Mr. Cessna to Congress on this issue."—Tom Marshall at the Radical Meeting, in presence of Cessna, who dared not repudiate the sentiment.

Forney says, "We anxiously await Seymour's third letter." He will have his wants supplied on the fourth of March next. The document was prepared some time ago and is as follows:

"I do solemnly swear that I will faithfully execute the office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my ability preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of the United States."

Almost as short as Grant's speech at St. Louis, and a little more to the point.

"The Negro should have the right to vote in the Northern States and I will come into this Congressional district and help elect Mr. Cessna to Congress on this issue."—Tom Marshall at the Radical Meeting, in presence of Cessna, who dared not repudiate the sentiment.

JOHN CESSNA'S MODESTY.

Seldom have we witnessed, says the Chambersburg Valley Spirit, such an outrageous violation of all the rules of decency as that of which the Radical County Convention was guilty last week. Col. George B. Weistling had been announced by his friends as a candidate for Congress. No other person was named for the position from this county. It was supposed by Democrats, who are accustomed to the observance of the rules of etiquette in their Conventions as well as in social life, that the Conferees from this county would be conceded to Col. Weistling. But not so. For weeks prior to the assembling of the Convention, the Colonel was subjected to the most virulent abuse published in the columns of the party organ. He was bitterly denounced for presuming to claim the recommendation of this county. The Repository gave all the space that was asked for to those who seemed to delight in traducing Col. Weistling and his friends. But when his friends rallied to his support and sought to defend him against the attacks of an anonymous scribbler, they were denied the opportunity. "All our columns to traduce, but not one square to defend," was the magnanimous motto of the Editors of the Radical organ, who seem to have fallen in love with little John Cessna.

When the delegate election in the North Ward of this Borough resulted in the choice of Weistling delegates, the Cessna men got up a small secession movement, and bolted. They threatened to elect other delegates.—In some way, however, the matter was arranged and the Convention was spared the annoyance of a contest between rival sets of delegates for seats in the Convention.

On the night before the Convention assembled, John Cessna, with his characteristic modesty, appeared upon the ground, brought here by invitation, to assist in slaughtering Colonel Weistling in his own County. His friends had been active and had succeeded in having the Convention "set up." And on the ballot being taken, Cessna was declared to be the choice of this County for Congress.

Then came the richsst part of the whole performance. Mr. Adams, one of the avowed friends of Cessna, introduced a resolution which was intended as a healing salve for Colonel Weistling. It eulogized him in glowing language, complimented him upon his services in the field, commended his fidelity to his party and gave him credit for commanding talents. But Colonel Weistling was not in a humor to be "soft-soddered." With the instinct of a gentleman he spurned the proffered compliment, knowing well the hollowness of the friendship which prompted it. Eloquently, earnestly, and with masterly skill, he dissected the resolution and exhibited its total inconsistency with the former action of the Convention. The Cessna delegates, who evidently felt that they had been guilty of a mean trick quailed under the manly words that fell from his lips. Another effort was made to press the resolution, but, with an earnestness and significance that could not be mistaken, the Colonel uttered another vigorous protest, and it was withdrawn.

John Cessna regards it as a crime for any one to oppose him. Possessed of more impudence and self conceit than it would be safe to entrust any ten men with, he supposes that people everywhere have the same opinion of him that he has of himself. It would be a mistake too, to charge him with having any keen sense of honor, or any of the notions of propriety which would have kept a man of refined sensibilities away from Chambersburg during the session of this Convention. He came here to ride roughshod over Colonel Weistling, to crush his opponents beneath his feet and to teach them that they must never become refractory on his hands hereafter.

But the Convention was not satisfied with slaughtering the only candidate from this County for Congress in order to satisfy the demands of the little Bedford God, but it must needs add insult to injury. Out of all the gentlemen of the Radical party in this County, the President selected two conferees who must be specially obnoxious to Colonel Weistling, one of them being the reputed author of the articles which assailed him so bitterly, and the other, one of our neighbors of the Repository who refused to let the Colonel in to a defence.

This is a Radical quarrel and of course with it we have nothing to do. But we have felt it our duty as journalists to thus publicly call attention to the shabby treatment which the supporters of that little demagogue, John Cessna, extended to Colonel Weistling, who, however Radical he may be in politics, is nevertheless a thorough gentleman.

John Cessna has thus succeeded in securing the conferees from this County. We congratulate him on his success. We have been wishing for him to run at a time when it would be in the power of the Democracy to "lay him out" and we opine that he has hit the right time. We propose to move immediately upon his works.

To the deep mortification of being misrepresented in Congress by illiterate, nasal-tongued, carpet-bag adventurers, there is yet a heavier weight of humiliation for the Southern people to bear in the election of their Presidential electors by the pretty carpet-baggers and Freedmen's Bureau clerks, who comprise their Legislatures.

The negro and scallawag members of the Texas Convention have voted themselves fifteen dollars a day for their valuable services in making a constitution. Thus, says the Louisville Journal, they have out-niggered and out-scallawaged even the niggers and scallawags of the other Southern conventions.

We Polked them once,
We Pierced them well,
And then we Bucked them sore;
And with Frank Blair
We'll make them stare,
That they may all Sey-mour.

Nearly every Conservative meeting in the South has been interrupted by negroes, instigated by the cowardly Yankee carpet-baggers. "Let us have peace."

The Radical Governor of Louisiana demands military aid, and Brownlow wants negro troops to help carry the State. "Let us have peace."

The Radicals want to organize campaign choirs, but out of regard for Grant, they will have no Jewsharps.

If the Radicals want impartial suffrage, what does their platform say one suffrage North and another South for?

The Connecticut Legislature, Radical, is accused of filching seven dollars per day. It is a Radical characteristic.

Is it impartial suffrage to enfranchise the black and disfranchise the white man?

The Radical party is staggering, and Prentice thinks it is from having swallowed Grant.

The Black Test—see it at the head of this paper and read it to your neighbor.

Ex-President Pierce writes that New Hampshire will go for Seymour.

If the Radicals want peace, what are they arming the negroes for?

The next inaugural address will be an Horation.

The Inquirer propose to "fight it out on this lying if it takes all summer."

JAPAN.

Bloody Battles; Murders of Christians, Etc.; One-Half of Jeddo Burned.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16.—The steamship Colorado, with advices from China dated at Shanghae and Hong Kong to July 15, and from Yokohama, Japan, to July 26, arrived here to-day. The Colorado landed a number of passengers for New York, Foreigners were prospecting at the gold diggings in China. American fog horns were likely to be placed on the Yangtse river. The United States squadron was for the most part in Japan.

Several Chinese pirates have been punished. It was said that one hundred and fifty Christian natives of Japan had been taken to sea and drowned near Nagasaki in defiance of a protest of the foreign Consuls.

Severe battles had been fought between the contending forces in Japan, with varying results. Half of the city of Jeddo, including two temples, has been burned. It is said that the Northern princes wish to refer all matters of home difference to England, France, and the United States, for final settlement. A new port had been partially opened in the west of Japan.

General Jackson's Opinion of "No Policy" Candidates.

"I shall have no policy of my own to interfere against the people.

U. S. GRANT."

I say again, fellow citizens, remember the fate of ancient Rome, and vote for no candidate who will not tell you with the frankness of an independent freeman, the principles upon which, if elected, he will administer your Government.

That man deserves to be a slave who would vote for a mum candidate when his liberties are at stake.

Pertinent Questions.

The New York World propounds the following pertinent questions. What Radical can answer them?

If reconstruction is a success, why isn't the army withdrawn?

If the Radicals mean to economize, why didn't they begin three years ago?

If the negroes can vote of themselves, why pay the Bureau to teach them?

If the Radicals want peace, what are they running their candidate on his military merits for?

If the Radicals mean equal rights, why one currency for capital and another for labor?

If the Radicals want impartial suffrage, what does their platform say one suffrage North and another South for?

If the Radicals want peace, what are they arming the negroes for?

Is it impartial suffrage to enfranchise the black and disfranchise the white man?

"The War between the States, its Causes, Character, Conduct and results, by Hon. Alexander H. Stevens, is the title of a valuable work just issued by The National Publishing Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

Histories of the late civil war have sprung up like mushrooms, and they can now be numbered almost by hundreds, but all who are desirous of arriving at a correct understanding of the causes, and a clear history of the events of the lamentable war, have felt the want of a reliable history of the same from a Southern standpoint, by some representative man of the South. This want is about to be supplied by Alexander H. Stevens. Mr. Stevens was a most earnest protestant against rebellion, and only succumbed at the last moment, when his State, in spite of his warning committed the great error.

The bare announcement that this distinguished Statesman had determined to write a book, would, of itself, be sufficient to kindle a lively and wide-spread interest in all sections of the country; but when it is known that he has chosen as his theme the one so fruitful as the late American War, the absorbing interest of the subject, together with the evident and singular fitness of the author for its treatment, unite in awakening a curiosity entirely unparalleled in the annals of American literature.

It presents a careful political analysis of the past, separating real from apparent causes of the late unhappy conflict, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the Great War, only known to those high officers, who watched the flood-tide of Revolution from its fountain-springs, and which were so accessible to Mr. Stephens from his position as second officer of the Confederacy.

To a public that has been surfeited with apparently similar productions, it presents a change of fare, both agreeable and salutary, and an intellectual treat of the highest order. The Great American War has at last found a historian worthy of its importance, and at whose hands it receives that moderate, candid and impartial treatment which truth and justice so urgently demand.

This most valuable work is sold only by subscription, and the publishers want an agent in every County.

THE LADY'S FRIEND, FOR SEPTEMBER.—A spirited Steel Engraving called "The Attack," leads off the September number of this "Queen of the Monthlies." This is followed by the usual elegant Stell Fashion Plate and by a fine Wood Engraving, suited to to the seaside season, called "On the Cliff." Then come numerous engravings of the Fashions, interesting to ladies, with a piece of Music. The literary matter of this number is unusually interesting. We can safely recommend "THE LADY'S FRIEND," as occupying the very front rank among the ladies' magazines. It is published by Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia, at $2.50 a year.

THE GALAXY for September is on our table. It is replete with excellent literary articles. The Galaxy is a welcome visitor. Published by Sheldon & Co., New York.

THE NEW POST OFFICE LAW.—The post office law just passed by Congress contains some important changes in the mode of conducting the business of the department, and as all our readers are more or less interested in sending and receiving letters and newspapers, we publish some of the provisions of the new law for their information.—The law provides that all letters on which the name of the sender is endorsed shall be returned to him if not call for within thirty days; it doubles the compensation of postmasters for the payment of money orders, but reduces the fees on the same. It permits weekly newspapers sent to regular subscribers in the county where published to be delivered free of postage from the post office nearest the place of publication; it also authorizes the issue of duplicate money orders. This law also makes it a felony of high character to use postage stamps a second time knowingly and authorises the Postmaster General to prescribe a uniform for letter carriers, and makes it a misdemeanor for any one else to wear the same.

"'Tis the penalty of nature that all must fade and wither." The first inroad upon our personal charms is generally denoted by the hair, and in most cases prematurely. Let all who would preserve their natural capillary adornments make haste to apply that never-failing potency, "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorer.—Hartford Courant.

Not only should every Democrat have his county newspaper, during the coming campaign, but he should likewise make it a point to furnish his Republican neighbor a copy. This is the plan upon which our opponents have acted for years, and it is about time that Democrats do something of the same sort. NOW, GO TO WORK and put your Democratic newspaper in the hands of every Republican who will read. If you will do this you will accomplish more good in six months than you will by any other means in six years. Democratic politicians, throughout the county, are enabled, by the above low terms, to circulate Democratic newspapers at a very small cost. We appeal to them to see to getting up clubs, and to see to it in time. Now is the time to sow the seed. After a little while the heat of passion and prejudice will beam upon the public mind in all its intense fierceness, and then seed-time will have passed. Friends, let us hear from you!

SPECIAL NOTICES.

DR. TOBIAS' Celebrated Venetian Liniment whose wonderful cures, sure and instantaneous action in cases of Chronic Rheumatism, Headache, Toothache, Cuts, Burns, Colic, Cramps, Dysentery, etc., have astonished the civilized world. It is no new catch-penny, but an article that has stood the test of twenty years. The enormous sale and rapidly increasing demand is at once the surest evidence of its usefulness and popularity. Try it and be convinced. No family should be without a bottle in the house—hundreds of dollars, and many hours of suffering may be saved by its timely use. Colic, Cramp, and Dysentery yield at once to its pain-curative properties. It is perfectly innocent, and can be given to the oldest person or youngest child. No matter, if you have no confidence in Patent Medicines—try this, and you will be sure to buy again and recommend to your friends. Hundreds of Physicians recommend it in their practice. None genuine unless signed, "S. I. Tobias." Price 50 cents ber bottle. Sold by all the Druggists. Depot, 56 Cortlandt Street, New York. jul24w4

A NEW REMEDY IN CONSUMPTION.—A Physician who had Consumption for several years, with frequent bleedings of the lungs, cured himself with a medicine unknown to the profession, when his case appeared hopeless. He is the only physician who has used it in his own person, or who has any knowledge of its virtues; and he can ascribe the degree of health he now enjoys to nothing but the use of his medicine; and nothing but utter despair and entire extinction of all hope of recovery, together with a want of confidence in all others induced him to hazard the experiment To those suffering with any disease of the Lungs he proffers a treatment he confidently believes will eradicate the disease. SEYMOUR AND BLAIR CLUB MEETING.—Eloquent Speeches by Gen. McKaig and A. Leo Knott, Esq.—On last Saturday evening the Seymour and Blair Campaign Club meeting was announced to be held at the court house. The evening being close, it was thought best to hold the meeting in the open air, and accordingly it was held in front of the Bedford Hotel. The committee on permanent organization, through E. F. Kerr, Esq., made a report and submitted the following as officers of the club: President, Henry Nicodemus, Esq.; V. Presidents, W. R King, J. T. Gephart; Secretaries, W. C. Schaeffer, A. D. Koontz, Josiah Haley. Gen. McKaig then addressed the meeting, and made an excellent speech, which was duly appreciated by the crowd, the speaker being frequently interrupted by rounds of applause. A. Leo Knott, Esq., Prosecuting Attorney of Baltimore, followed in an able and eloquent speech of over an hour. William Walsh, Esq., of Cumberland, who had been announced to speak, was present, but owing to severe indisposition was unable to do so. After a few remarks by O. E. Shannon, Esq., the meeting adjourned with three cheers for Seymour and Blair.

The meeting was large, and the most orderly and attentive one we have ever seen. A full representation of ladies were present, and the Democratic Band discoursed its sweetest music. Hurrah for Democracy!

THE Franklin county, Democratic Convention met on Tuesday, of last week, and made the following nominations:

Congress, F. M. Kimmel, Chambersburg; Senate, C. M. Duncan, Chambersburg; Assembly, B. F. Wingert, Franklin Co.; Law Judge, J. McDowell Sharpe, Chambersburg, subject to the Decision of the District Conference.

Sheriff, Fred. Zollonger, Letterkenny; District Attorney, W. S. Stenger, Chambersburg; Comissioner, Wm. S. McAllen, Metal; Director of the Poor, Jacob R. Smith, Antrim; Auditor, W. D. McKinstry, Mercersburg; Surveyor, Hugh Auld, Chambersburg.

ADAMS COUNTY NOMINATIONS.—The Democratic Convention of Adams county met on Monday last and put the following ticket in nomination: For Congress, William McClean; Senate, Joseph M'Devit (subject to decision of conference); Assembly, Dr. Dill; Associate Judge, Joseph Kuhn; District Attorney, William A Duncan.

FEEL HURT.—Our remarks about the R. S. C. Band, hurt somebody's feelings. Somebody felt pinched and a lengthy explanation in the Inquirer is the result. If we were wrong in our deductions, why this much ado about nothing, couched in such beautiful and endearing terms, too? A word in your ear, Mr. Defender. If, when we tread on your toes you yell out so, the community will at once conclude that you are afflicted with corns. Versteh?

DAMAGES.—The Commissioners to adjudicate the losses by the rebel invasion of 1863, have visited three out of the seven counties in which losses were sustained. In Bedford county there are fifty claimants whose damages amount to $5,000. In Fulton county, which was most exposed, there are one hundred and thirty claimants, whose damages will reach at least $40,000, exclusive of the loss by a certain party of one hundred and seventy two fat cattle.

THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE FAIR.—The sixteenth annual exhibition of the Pennsylvania State agricultural Society will be held at Harrisburg, commencing on Tuesday, September 29th and ending on Friday, October 2d, 1868. We understand that unusual efforts are being put forth to make this the greatest and grandest fair ever held by this Society.

CORRECTION.—An article complimentary to Bedford as a watering place, which appeared in last week's GAZETTE, was credited to the Franklin Repository instead of the Valley Spirit, where it belonged. We cheerfully make this correction, and, on behalf of the good people of Bedford thank the Spirit for the kind words spoken.

HARVEST HOME PIC-NIC.—The farmers of Bedford township held a picnic, in the beautiful grove near the house of John Koons, on Saturday last. From one who was there we learn that it was a grand affair and passed off to the satisfaction of all concerned.

WILL the Bedford Inquirer, which printed the miserable daubs of carricatures, two years ago, give us another edition? They represented our prisoners starving at Andersonville. Another now is needed with Joe. Brown, of Georgia, in the foreground. Bring out your old stereotype.

ALMOST A FIRE.—One day last week one of the chimneys of the jail took fire, and being very foul threw out a large quantity of sparks on the roof. It was only by the greatest effort that the roof was prevented from taking fire. A young friend of ours acted as chief of the fire department, and distinguished himself in that capacity.

CONGRESSIONAL CONFERENCE.—The Democratic Congressional conference will meet at Bedford on Wednesday, the 26th inst.

LARGE EGG PLANT.—Mrs. O. E. Shannon raised an egg plant, this season, that measured 23 inches in circumference. This is the largest one we have ever heard of. Who can beat it?

EXTENSIVE FIRE AT EMMAVILLE.—Between the hours of one and two o'clock on Monday morning last, the 10th inst., the extensive Steam Tannery of Messrs. Hoyt Brothers, at Emmaville, in this county, was totally consumed by fire. The fire was communicated to the building from the furnace, but in what manner we are unable to learn. The loss is about $15,000; but fortunately it is entirely covered by insurance.

This is the second destructive fire that has, within a few months, visited Emmaville—the store of L. Hill & Son having been entirely consumed in that place, in the spring.—Fulton Republican.

PRESERVING TOMATOES FOR WINTER USE.—Ripe, sound tomatoes, cut and stewed until they can be put through a cullender to take the skins out; then, in a boiling state put them in dry, hot bottles or jars, which may be prepared by setting them in hot water and gradually increasing the heat till the water boils. Fill the bottles and let them boil a few minutes; cork and seal while hot, cutting the cork even with the top of the bottle; keep them in a dry cool place. For sealing wax, take two parts of rosin, one of beeswax, and one of shellac, melted together.

FRUIT THIEVES.—We hear many complaints from fruit growers who are doomed to suffer from the depredations of pilferers. These offences are very annoying from the fact that the depredators are often mere children. Nevertheless, everybody should understand that all are amenable to the laws, and that parents are responsible for the overt acts of their children. The fines range from $10 to $50, and it is the fault of the fruit owner if such trespassers are not made to suffer. A few examples will suffice for a whole community.

K. K. K.—The editor of one of our country exchanges threatens to Ku Klux hisdelinquent subscribers. Hear him:

"Some of our subscribers forgot to pay up this Summer. The Secret Serpent has hissed! Pay us! Bloody bills! The yaller coffin grins! Pay your subscriptions promptly! The fizzled cat mews! Death to traitors! Two dollars a year! Your doom is scaled!! K. K. K."†††!!!

BEWARE OF INFRINGMENTS.—The Willoughby patent gum spring drill, like all good and approved agricultural implements, could not expect to be manufactured a great while, without an attempt being made to violate its patent by some imitation or infringment. Let farmers be on the lookout! We mean to protect our patent. And let it be remembered that the purchaser is equally liable with the manufacturer of an infringing machine. All our drills are plainly marked "Willoughby Gum Spring Drill, F. Gardner & Co., Carlisle, Pa."

FINE ORGAN.—We have had the pleasure of seeing and hearing one of S. D. & W. H. Smith's (of Boston), grand AMERICAN ORGANS in upright case, just received from the manufacturers. This instrument is a beautiful peace of furniture for the church or parlor. It combines all the superior qualities of the American Organ, which justly deserves the great reputation they bear. The work is of solid walnut, superbly polished and carved, with gilt imitation pipes, and the instrument contains two banks of keys and fourteen stops, including the manual sub bass and tremolo.—Louisville Journal.

ALLEN'S IMPROVED (new style) HAIR RESTORER OR DRESSING, (in one bottle.)—Two weeks' trial, and you have the guarantee that you will not have a gray hair in your head.—The natural color and beauty are restored, and a new and luxuriant growth is the result. We have this spoken by those who have used it, and we predict hosts of friends for the inproved preparation, and we are happy to state the price is only One Dollar per bottle. DIED.

CRISMAN—At her residence in Napier tp, on Tuesday morning last, aged 71 years, Mrs. Elizabeth Crisman, wife of Andrew Crisman, Esq.

The deceased was a faithful and affectionate wife, a kind mother and a peaceable and quiet neighbor. Her end was peaceful. She died in the hope of a glorious resurrection. A few days before her departure, she partook of the most comfortable Sacrament of the body and blood of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Thus was her soul strengthened for the last great conflict.

STAR AGRICULTURAL WORKS.

THE ALBANY COTTON GIN MANUFACTURING CO., Albany, N. Y., Manufacturers of General Agricultural Machinery, comprising the celebrated "Star" Threshing Machines; "Star" Railway (or Endless Chain) and Lever Horse Powers; "Star" Cotton Gins and Condensers; Circular Cross-cut Sawmills; Vegetable Cutters; Horse Hay Forks; Corn and Feed Mills; Power Corn Shellers; Dog Powers, &c., &c.

We wish to call the particular attention of Farmers to our celebrated "STAR" THRESHER AND CLEANER, which, as lately improved, we claim it far superior to any other machine now in market. It is compact and easily portable, simple in its construction, and therefore easy to operate by the most inexperienced, and will do its work with marvellous rapidity and perfection, and with comparatively the least demand upon the strength of the animals driving it.

We have made recent improvements in this machine by which we are enabled to thoroughly clean the grain under almost any combination of difficulties, and we are now using an entirely new and effective device for relieving the feeder of dust, thus making the operation of threshing as comfortable and safe as with the ordinary machines it is annoying and frequently destructive of health.

These Machines are made of suitable sizes for our "Star" Railway 2 Horse Power and for our "Star" Lever Powers for 4 and 6 horses.

For sale by our agents and dealers generally. For full particulars, send for our Illustrated Descriptive Circular and Price List. Correspondents will please address The Albany Cotton Gin Manufacturing Co., P. O. Drawer 162, Albany, N. Y.

We cannot offer to the person sending us the largest amount of money for a month, a Gift of money or Watches, as that is a violation of the Law against Lotteries; but in addition to the above liberal terms, we will sell to any one who may send us $10, eleven articles from our exchange list, all to be sent in one order; and for $20 we will sell twenty-two articles from our exchange list, all to be sent in one order.

IF A HUMBUG,

What a wonder
That the doors
Are open wide;
Ever since the
First of August
Thousands have
Pain Paint applied.
Those who lie,
Or call it humbug,
Are the doctors,
Not acquaint;
For they always
Have been jealous
When their patients
Use Pain Paint.
Pile up facts
As high as mountains,
Flash the truth
Before their eyes,
But the cry
Is always humbug,
Men of science
Full of lies.

People know that liniments composed of Cayenne pepper, turpentine, hartshorn, ether, &c., will produce inflammation and pain. To purchase such trash to stop Pain and Inflammation is ridiculous. Fire will not stop heat; a dumb brute shuns the heat, and knows enough to wade in a pond of water, when wounded, to reduce, cool, and cure Inflammation and Fever.

Pimps and gamblers try to look honest, but folks can read the face too plainly. Some try to persuade the ignorant that pills, physic, &c., cleanse the blood, purge the system, and do a hundred other things equally absurd. Everybody knows that it is false, and that no medicine can purify or increase a drop of blood. Food makes blood, bone, and muscle, and is the Staff of Life. Every dose of medicine swallowed is rejected, and hurried out of the system as quick as possible. It is an enemy; yea, a deadly foe. Constipation, ill health, and weakness, are the result of dosing, dosing, dosing the stomach.—The living system has enough to do without working herself to death in expelling and kicking out the pernicious nostrums poured down the throat. Food she welcomes when she needs it; yea, asks for it. Let pill-makers and physic venders stop eating food, and see how long they can subsist on their blood-purifying, invigorating, health-giving medicines and cordials. What humbug is more transparent? A dog would feel so insulted if offered a dose, he would curl his tail downward in scorn, and run away in utter disgust. All physical pain arises from inflammation. Put out the fire and you stop pain absolutely. You can stop pain as easy as you can quench fire with water. WOLCOTT'S PAIN PAINT suit dues inflammation, heat, and fever one hundred times faster than ice. Thousands have had a practical test of its merits at the very moment of most extreme pain and they can testify that it has not failed in doing its work. It is simple; it is harmless, it has no stain; it gives no smart; it is for sale by Druggists everywhere; and it is tested free of cost at 170 CHATHAM SQUARE, N. Y., and 622 Arch Street, Philadelphia

My wife had an ulcer on her leg for thirteen years, caused by varicose veins, ulceration extending from her ankle to her knee, some places eating away to the bone. I have employed over twenty physicians at vast expense during this period. But all attempts at cure proved utterly abortive until I tried Dr. Wolcott's Pain Paint, which the doctors told me was a humbug. But humbug or not, it has done the work completely in less than one month, removing the pain at the first application. I kept her leg wet with Pain Paint constantly until healed. I wish we had more humbugs as useful as Dr. Wolcott's Pain Paint. I am well known in this city any person who wants to make further inquiry will call at 101 West Street, New York, at the Hanover House, of which I am the proprietor, and I think I can satisfy them as to the benefit derived by the use of Pain Paint.

May 12, 1868. PETER MINCK.

I am selling Wolcott's Pain Paint and Annihilator, and it certainly gives satisfaction to my customers.

D. F. COLES, Druggist, Rahway, N. J.

I am selling more of Wolcott's Pain Paint, than any other Patent Medicine.

C. N. CRITTENTON,

Wholesale Druggist, No. 7 6th Ave., N. Y.

I sell more of Wolcott's Pain Paint than all the other patent medicines combined, and I keep a full supply of all that have any demand.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED. Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriages, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

☞ Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

PROSPECTUS.

THE MORNING PATRIOT.

The office of the late Patriot and Union having passed into the hands of the undersigned, they propose to supply a vacuum that has long existed in the newspaper press of interior Pennsylvania.

From some cause or other the reading masses of the Democratic party of the great interior counties of the State, have been compelled, either to do without the latest news, or patronize journals whose political sentiments were distasteful to them

The MORNING PATRIOT is intended to supply this want.

Its proprietors are determined that no efforts shall be spared, on their part, to make it FULLY EQUAL, as a newspaper, to any of its competitors Whatever the electric wires are able to communicate, up to the hour of going to press, will be furnished in its columns every morning; and its large size will enable it to give quite as much reading matter as any of its contemporaries.

As an advocate of sound political sentiments, favoring no faction, clique or section, but devoting its entire energies to the good of the whole party; as a vehicle of the latest news, and a chronicler of passing events, we are determined that it shall not be excelled; and we confidently appeal to a discriminating public for that appreciation and encouragement which are indispensable to success.

It will be one of the largest weekly papers in the State, and special pains will be taken to fill its columns with such reading matter as will be alike interesting and useful to the Farmer, the Mechanic and the Man of Business, and to make it an agreeable and welcome visitor to every family.

Every person should subscribe to the paper printed in his own county, and we do not mean to enter into competition with the local papers of the State. But, many people take their home paper and a city paper in addition. To such we send greeting.
